Experts bid—Clysmic Water. Sparkling—adv.

The heavy fog of the early hours Wednesday was followed by a day of summer temperature.

The road north of the schoolhouse in Uncasville has received a coating of oil, the work being done by employees of the state.

The fair given by the American council, O. U. A. M., of Montville, in Robertson's hall, last week, netted about $50.

At Ocean beach every day, a half-dozen or more cottagers, some of them women, go in bathing. Two more weeks will see the end of the season for them.

At the special election in Niantic yesterday, Jay V. Beckwith, democratic candidate for selectman, defeated John J. Comstock, the republican candidate, by 94 votes.

State Highway Commissioner James H. MacDonald has purchased a farm of about 100 acres in area in the outskirts of Norfolk and will improve it for farming and summer residence.

sioned agents for the Connecticut Humanity society for three years: Ernest V. Sherman, of Long Hill, Stuart, Camp of Winthrop, Willis W. Cooper of Colebrook and Arthur I. Crandall of Stamford.

The rains this fall have soaked the earth, as it had not been soaked before for four years, and it looks as though there would be water in all springs, wells, swamps, rivers and brooks all winter.

In Worcester Tuesday, the following marriage license was issued: John C. Williams, in Waterford. She is survived by two sons, Park and Ernest Smith, and a daughter, Mrs. Williams.

Judge Gardner Greene of Norwich will have a busy time in the superior court Friday, at Hartford, for besides the Post divorce action which is continued from last week, there are six uncontested divorce cases on the list to be tried.

The search for Ardelie Scriber, the mission East New London girl, by Sheriff Martin, has not proved successful, but is being continued and may bring the looked for result. She is being sought in Vermont and Massachusetts now.

The state police commissioners met at the capitol Tuesday at the request of Supt. Thomas F. Egan for a conference in regard to the enforcement of the new law under which the state police have charge of the sealing of weights and measures.

Of local interest is the item of Stonington news that through the officers of Ocean View commandery, United Order of the Golden Cross, the sum of $500 was paid Monday to the beneficaries of Mrs. John T. Stewart, who died about three weeks ago.

cut, returned Tuesday to the New York office of James Jay Smith, to resume their work for the winter.

R. H. SCHUTZ SPOKE
AT TRINITY CHURCH.

Addressed Men Following Supper on Men and Religion Forward Movement.

The men of Trinity Episcopal church parish met on Wednesday evening in the Sunday school room at the church for supper at 6.30 o'clock, 33 enjoying the excellent menu served by the ladies of the parish aid society. Attorney R.
H. Schutz of Hartford was the special guest of the evening. He is a chairman of the missionary committee of the men and religion forward movement in Hartford, and he was introduced by the rector, Rev. J. Eldred Brown, to speak upon that subject.

Mr. Schutz gave an inspiring talk along that line. He had attended the Silver Bay conference also and he spoke with enthusiasm of the projected movement into which the churches are to enter.

He was followed by Frank H. Foss, who spoke briefly along the same lines.

MAY LOSE LICENSE.

Peter Coccarelli Heard by State Secretary on Painted Markers.

Peter Coccarelli was before State Secretary Rogers Tuesday afternoon to "correct evidence" submitted by him in his defense at a previous hearing before the secretary to find out if Coccarelli is guilty of allowing his cars to go out with painted markers instead of the legal markers. He was unable to clear himself under "grilling process." His lawyer fought hard against the volume of evidence, to a great extent contributed by three state policemen and John L. Harris of Norwich, who was the origin of Coccarelli, and on whom it was apparent at the hearing that the garage owner attempted to shift the guilt. No decision was given at the close of the meeting, but it is not to be doubted that Secretary Matthew H. Rogers will suspend the dealer's registration for a considerable period.

FUNERAL.

William Fields, Sr.

Wednesday morning the funeral of William Fields, Sr., was held from his late home, No. 99 Sherman street, and at St. Patrick's church a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. T. A. Grumbly. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, many being present from Providence, Orange, N. J., New London and New Haven. The floral remembrances were handsome.
The bearers were Thomas Lynch, John Fields, Timothy Fields, Timothy Sullivan, Jeremiah Lynch and Timothy Fields. Two solos were sung by Mrs.
R. J. Gough. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

IMPROVEMENTS AT BOAT CLUB

Addition to be Made to Shed and Stone Pier Will be Put in—Officials Re-elected at Annual Meeting.

The Chelsea Boat club had its annual meeting on Wednesday evening at the boat house, preceding the business session with a chowder served at 7 o'clock by Professor Geary. The tables made an attractive appearance for the party who sat down to partake of the toothsome preparation. Electric lights were arranged for the illumination, and the club totem was shown in lights.
The harmony club rendered an excellent programme during the supper hour.

Commodore Herbert B. Cary called the business meeting to order about 8 o'clock. The report of Secretary J.
Ralph Howe showed a present membership of 119, 15 having been added during the year. Treasurer Walter M.
Buckingham made a very satisfactory financial showing in his report. The balance on hand being over $107, which is the most in a number of years.

Commodore Cary was re-elected to succeed himself on the board of governors. Commodore Cary was re-elected to that office and the auditors were re-elected as follows: Charles B.

Foster and Carl W. Brown.
The constitution was amended, changing the date of the annual meeting from the 1st of January, containing rules, names of members and other useful information. The preceding book was gotten out in 1909.

A vote was passed empowering the board of governors to proceed with the erection of an addition to the boat house shed and a stone pier. This is to provide storage accommodation for six more launches.

At a subsequent meeting of the board of governors the following were chosen to office, all being re-elections: Vice commodore, W. Tyler Olcott, rear commodore, George A. Richmond; secretary, J. Ralph Howe; treasurer, Walter M. Buckingham. The commodore is to announce the committee in charge.
Altogether the year was one of the most successful the club has enjoyed.

OPEN MEETING HELD

BY THAMES COUNCIL

Two of the Grand Officers Present and Made Addresses.

Thames council, No. 1851, Royal Arcanum, held an enjoyable and well attended open meeting on Wednesday evening in Foresters' hall, at which there were present to make an official visitation two of the officers of the grand council of the state, acting Grand Regent Albert H. Barclay of New Haven, and Grand Secretary Clinton E. Barclay of New Haven, who is also supreme guide.

Those present also included past Grand Regent Walter E. Canfield and Regent George W. Adams of Norwich council, No. 729, and several members of that council.

Regent W. T. Curry presided and introduced acting Grand Regent Barclay as the first speaker. He made an effective address upon the merits of the order, its stability and adequate and reasonable rates and the fine proposition it offered to men, stating that it was stronger than ever, with a reserve fund of over six millions, a membership of 245,000 and 26,000 councils all over the United States and Canada. He praised the order as the best of the Connecticut grand council for new names for membership and urged the councils in Norwich, New London and Putnam to get up a class of 25 new members so that they might invite the supreme regent to visit this territory.

He was followed by Grand Secretary Barclay in a brief but telling address along similar lines.

During the evening Marvin R. Doty of Stamford gave several recitations to the great pleasure of his audience, and Raymond B. Eldred was heard in two beautifully rendered violin solos, Dances of Old Vienna (Geissler) and Beethoven's minuet in G major, for both of which he was enthusiastically encored.

A chowder was served before the evening was over and Past Regent Rutherford C. Platt presided at toastmaster. Informal programs were such like at Mystic Tuesday, the train ran away with the whole crowd.

There was a double wedding at Mystic Tuesday. The principals, Mr. and Mrs. J. Burnham and Mr. and Mrs.
H. L. Morey, of that place, decided to spend their honeymoon in New Haven.
After the wedding the newlyweds and some of their friends went to the Mystic station. The usual send-off to the bridal parties about the train was in progress when the train started and as a result Joseph Morey, Clara Morey, Eva Morey and William LaVant were carried off to this city, and they didn't seem to mind a bit. The newlyweds and their kidnapped friends put up at the Hotel Garder Tuesday night and after touring the business center of the city Wednesday morning left at noon for Mystic.

Naturally, for the single folks, there was some explanation to make of their absence from home, and they did this by telegraph as soon as they arrived in this city Tuesday afternoon. Even if the young women did take breakfast and such like in evening dress, who cared? They didn't, anyway, for they were enjoying themselves hugely about the hotel and at the station during the morning.

GOING TO BRIDGEPORT.

Motorman A. J. Flanagan of the Connecticut company has resigned, and will go to Bridgeport to enter the automobile business with his brother.

NEW BRITAIN.—At the meeting of the Holy Name society Sunday evening, after the address of Rev. Father Christmas, 85 applications for membership were received.

REMOVING THE ROCK

FROM SUNKEN LIGHTER

Removing of the Loads Helps to Raise the Samuel Carlton.

On Wednesday a large barge float was brought up the river and tied up alongside the sunken lighter Samuel Carlton and the work of removing the load of rock from the lighter was commenced by the Thames Towboat company. The derrick of the sunken boat was made ready for use and the rock hoisted on to the barge, so that quite a quantity was taken off before the afternoon. This relieved the Carlton somewhat, and it stood higher in the water than it has previously. After the rock is removed, it is believed the lighter can be pumped out and raised.
The new flat has an engine and pump to assist in raising the lighter.

DISPLAY OF APPLES.

Came from Lillibridge, Morse and Greiner Orchards.

There was encouragement for apple growers in this section in a display of apples from spruce trees which were shown in the window of The Lee & Osgood company store on Wednesday.
The apples were all from farms and orchards, coming from the Lillibridge, Morse and Greiner places. There were 50 varieties in the fine display, all remarkably perfect fruit, free from spots and blemishes, sizeable and well rounded out. The big ones of the collection were the Wolf River apples, which together weighed 46 ounces.

OBITUARY.

Henry Latham.

At 1.30 o'clock this morning, the death of Henry Latham occurred, at his late home at Quaker Hill, in Waterford, where he has resided for a number of years. He has been in poor health for the past two years.

Mr. Latham was for years a resident of Norwich and was a well-known carpenter. He has resided at Quaker Hill for a number of years.
He is survived by his wife and one son.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Kenyon, widow of Edward P. Kenyon, died Tuesday night at the home of Dr. Eckley R. Storrs, No. 15 Green street, Hartford, of pneumonia, contracted about a week ago. She went to Hartford from her home in Windham to visit relatives and was taken ill. She was born in Ithaca, N. Y., Jan. 20, 1824. Her maiden name was Ann Eliza Pew. She married Edward P. Kenyon in Ithaca in 1847.
Four years ago they celebrated their 60th anniversary at their home in Windham. Mr. Kenyon died last February. Mrs. Kenyon leaves three sons, Rinaldo P. and George Kenyon of Hartford and William E. Kenyon, assistant postmaster at Fairbanks, Alaska, and a daughter, Miss Emma Kenyon, of Windham. There are nine grandchildren.
